JASON WHITE - GET A NEW SAFETY PIN!! ☺

(SAVE)
NO WHITE OUT

Jason,

I've been sitting here trying to think just what I'm going to write, not that there's nothing to say. but that there's so much I want to tell you and so much I want us to share before I leave. and I want it to sound special So when you read it in the future, it will reach out and touch you.

It's been so hard for me to express just exactly how I feel. When those moments came when you held me close. and it felt like the perfect time to tell you how much I love you. Something always tugged on my heart telling me that if I let you know how much I felt for you, our hearts would never mend after we were seperated. This is the reason I didn't want to hear you tell me you loved me.

You've made this year so special and you've made me feel special. I would love to see you at my door over in Europe someday if that's the way our lives lead.

Thanks for all the good times Jason

Love
Tasya.

"We are friends. We want nothing from you, and you want nothing from us. We share life."

Well, we really did share life, spending a lot of time together, experiencing friendship to the fullest. Thank you for being supportive, cooperative, and helping to make our position as editors an easier one. The element to our success as a yearbook staff has been the fact we stuck together through "rough times" in the Journalism Department.

Thanks Tom, for dragging yourself enthusiastically to yearbook after trying football practices, and for your willingness to learn and patience to try again. You were a great moral support. Francie, for your overwhelming assistance during our first deadlines and for the many McDonald's coupons for our "Big Mac attacks." Nolen, for trying new techniques and styles. You really did a terrific job! Jim, for helping out on the title page, and to the photographers and staffers because you did an amazing job. Just look at our accomplishment.

Special thanks to Lori and Lisa. You both did your jobs very successfully and proved great ability within yourselves. But we not only want to thank you for the fabulous job you did, but for your devoted friendship. We love you!

Lots of love ya'll!

Many a time I have made a comparison between nobility of sacrifice and happiness of rebellion to find out which one is nobler and more beautiful;
but until now I have distilled
only one truth out of the whole matter,
and this truth is sincerity,
which makes all our deeds
beautiful and honorable.

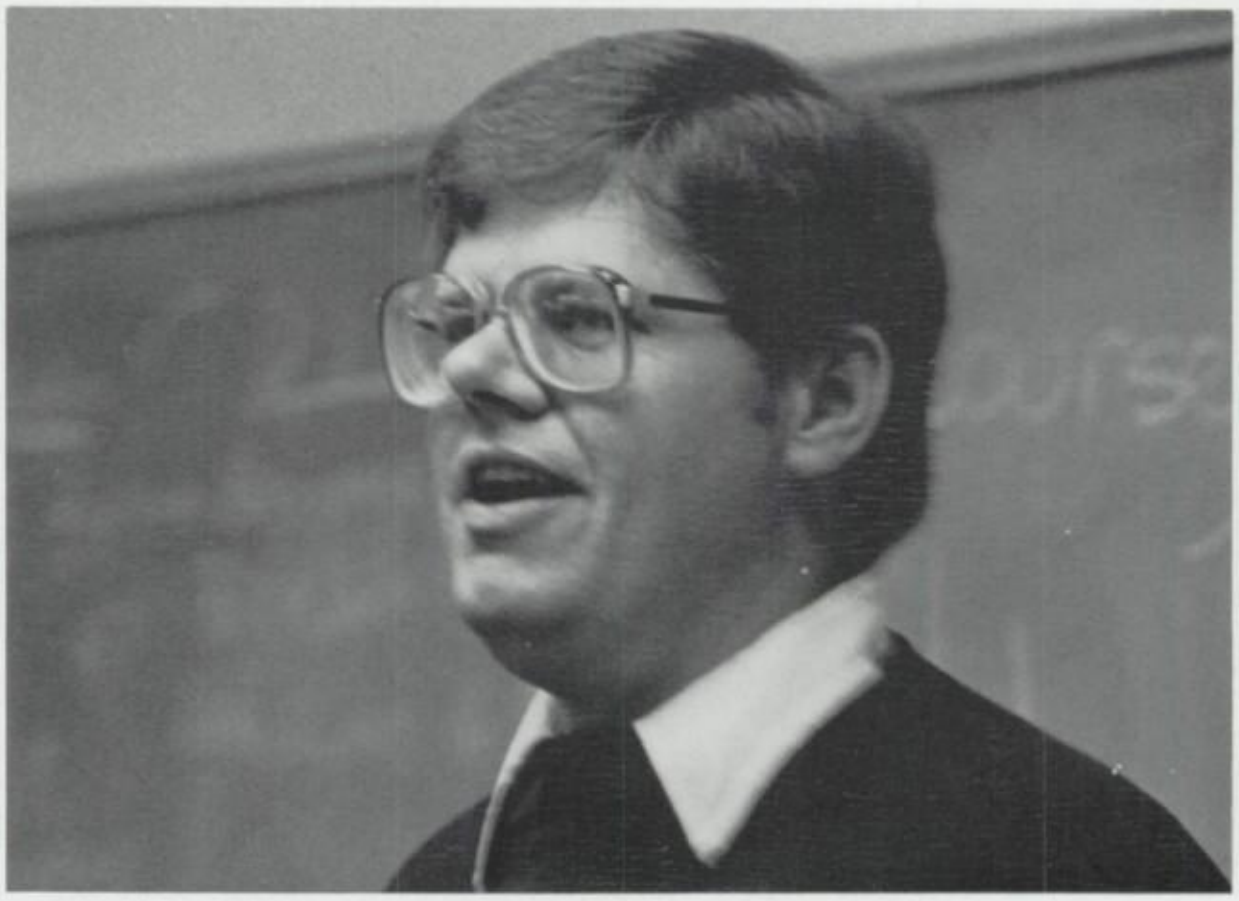
Our Friends

THANKS A BUNCH Ms. Morgan for considering our excused tardies and missed meetings, also for your pretty smile. ("Zap the Fat") We love you!

THANK YOU MRS. SUMMERS for your kindness, your spare time, and your patience during the hectic time of not having an advisor.

We are thankful you came along Mr. DeCoursey. Even though every now and then we found your lost sandwich where it shouldn't be, or came into a freezing room because you left the windows open, we appreciate what you have done. First of all, you have had to put up with paper clips in your coffee and rumors of you eating twinkies. Then there were our deadlines when we spent weekends working around your children's soccer games and their birthday parties. We thank you for your trust, your support, your judgement, and the fact you stuck around.

Our love — El Lobo Staff



YOU ARE A BLESSING to have around Ms. Boyle. It has been inspiring to know you are always there to give us a lift. You are beautiful and we love you!

WE GREATLY APPRECIATE your help Mr. Kinde. Thank you for your time in helping us with our graphic needs.

Machineable Heart

What was deemed as a major medical and scientific breakthrough was performed December 2, when sixty-one year old Barney Clarke was given the world's first artifical heart. Clarke suffered from an inoperable heart disease, which doctors say would have taken his life, had he not under gone the implant operation. The implant was more successful than even the doctor who performed the operation, Dr. William DeVries, had expected. Although emergency surgery had to be done, Clarke was standing on his own less than three weeks after the successful implant.

Money Woes

Money woes greeted the returning students as the nation debated as to whether we were in a deep recession or a light depression. The business slump was the longest experienced in post-war times. Unemployment was the biggest problem facing the country with a ten per cent rate, which was the highest in forty-two years. Buying a home became harder due to high interest rates, and Wall Street set new high and low records.

Ice Crash

Air Florida flight 737 plunged into and through the iced over Potomac River. Seventy-eight lives were lost in the air crash with survivors being plucked out of the icy waters by helicopter and heroic onlookers. One crash victim sacrificed his own life to save five other passengers by refusing a life-line and passing it to the others. The FFA blamed the crash on ice build up on the Boeing 737's wings.

NFL Strike

Two games into the season and Monday morning quarterbacks lost their Sunday pastime. It was teams against owners with the public losing in the long run. Players demanded a say in their own management and a piece of the revenues that their Sunday moves generate. Low attendance, bad fan reaction and less money greeted the players after settling the strike.

Current Times

Falkland War

Seventy-four days of war to decide who would rule a small group of islands populated by more sheep than people. Over one thousand lives were lost as Great Britain and Argentina traded naval shots. Argentina lost its largest warship, a World War II cruiser, and Britain lost its HMS Sheffield cruise. England prevailed with Argentina forces surrendering June 14. The issues which started the small war are yet to be settled satisfactorily to both sides.

Tampered Tylenol

A helpless nation stood by as an unknown and unstoppable maniac laced at random Tylenol capsules. Seven victims died after taking the tampered capsules filled with cyanide. Law enforcement searched in vain for a solution, but it was not known if the tampering took place before or after the capsules left the factory.

The poisonings brought out the copycat crimes which made Halloween night a troubled time for concerned parents. In some towns the traditional "trick or treat" festivities were banned. But, Tylenol lifted their recall in December and the shelves were stocked with tamper resistant packages.

Breshnev Dead

The Soviet Union's President Leonid Brezhnev, who had ruled for over eighteen years, died November 10, of a heart attack. Yuri Vladimirovich Andropov, former KGB head, assumed the reins of the Communist Party leadership. President Reagan dispatched Vice President Bush and Secretary of State George Shultz to Moscow to attend the Soviet leader's funeral.

Insanity Plea

The insanity plea was questioned when John Hinckley was found not guilty, by reason of insanity, of attempting to assassinate President Reagan. Twenty-seven year old Hinckley who shot the President for mental delusions related to actress Jodi Foster, also seriously injured Press Secretary James Brady. The verdict left in its wake a nationwide controversy over the insanity plea.

President Anna Marie Jacobson

Clark Gordon Keene

Member Donald Davis

A reception honoring Board of Education members Ben Ruoti and Dr. Lynn Jones was held December 14, 1982. Empoyees and community members honored the two board retirees who have each served four years.

Newly elected board members J. Danell Tarwater and Judi Hamilton were at the reception. The two candidates won strongly over three other school board candidates during the last November general election.

Those members who are continuing to serve are Anna Marie Jacobson, Gordon Keene and Donald Davis.

Dr. Perry noted that last year's CAT scores for CHS were higher than many neighboring school districts, and also better than at any time in the history of CHS.

Holly Graduates with the "Class of 83", in Guam

A former student of C.H.S., Holly Rogers, attended her Senior year in Guam at Inarajan High School on the southern part of the island. Holly and her family made the move to Guam the Summer of 82, when her parents received teaching jobs there.

As the only Anglo Senior, she graduated mid-term and was photographer on the yearbook staff. She also took beginning Japanese at G.C.C.

Holly enjoys life in Guam, yet she still misses family and friends living on the mainland.

Niana Fernandez, foreign exchange student from India, commented that her past year here at CHS "has been the neatest experience of my life."

When asked to comment on the differences between life for a teenager in India and one in the United States, Niana said, "There is much which is different, but there is much which is the same." India teenagers enjoy the same types of music, movies, food and video games.

Boys Track

An air of optimism surrounds the 1983 boys track team. With sophomore and junior athletes of superb quality and seniors possessing seasoned experience, the boys track team, coached by Mr. Shapiro, appears to be one of the strongest, most talented groups in Chandler High history.

"This is the most depth we have had in the sprints crew in a couple of years." Shapiro commented at the beginning of the season.

Team goals are to finish with high honors in division and state meets.

The season included SEVERAL meets including Mountain View, Corona Del Sol, and Mesa High, some of C.H.S.'s toughest opponents.

Coach Shapiro commented, "We've got a young team with only two seniors on it, but we do have a lot of untested talent. This team might be a year away from being a super team."

Last year's track team had seasoned veterans. This years team is mainly made up of sophomores. Although the competition should come from Mt. View, Westwood, Mesa and Coranado, the girls' track team's goal is to finish in the top 5 in division. Central Division girls' teams are traditionally high finishers in the state, so they should be able to do it.

Archery

Shooting potential, enthusiasm, and dedication to work typify this year's archery team. Jackie Troost, senior, and Susan Fisher and Donna King, juniors, are the returning team members with the remaining team members being novices with the bow.

Goals aimed for are the state top ten list, and as last year's team moved from 8th place to 7th place, the archers are targeting in on 5th place this year. The greatest opponents traditionally have been Camelback, Alhambra and Westwood, but on the right day it is anyone's bullseye.

This year's gymnastics team is inexperienced, with only four returning girls but very hard working. The gymnasts are attaining a higher quality and have a team goal to break 100 points. The team this year is throwing much harder tricks and should be very competitive with their opponents. Although every match is competitive, the toughest opponents should be Mountain View and Westwood.

J.V. Baseball

Anticipation of an exceptional season is the call for the JV team this season. Coach Larry Cook is excited about the enthusiasm shown by the players, and he hopes that their dedication to hard work will carry throughout the entire season.

This was the first season under new head coach, Jeff Mason, who came over from a very successful program at Apache Junction High School. We have 12 returning lettermen and 3 Juniors up from last years J.V.

"We have an experienced team that can play with anyone on any given day." Said Coach Mason. "Our team goal this season is to win the state championship. We will do what ever it takes to prepare ourselves to achieve that goal."

This years team promised lots of action and excitement on their way to one of the best seasons at CHS.

According to Coach Lois Truman, there was really no indication on how well the Girls Junior Varsity Basketball Team would play or end their season. Lack of experience and no height was a major factor against the group of ten sophomores, but their ability to more the ball and willingness to learn were points in their favor. Coach Truman said of the girls, "I see improvement each day and that is all that I expect from them."

Girls V. Basketball

After going 27-0 last season, the Girls Varsity Basketball Team is expected to have an enthusiastic year. The team, with five returning players, had two goals for the season: try to win as many games as possible and qualify for the Divisional Tournament.

Areas in which the girls thought they needed the most improvement were the fast break, team defense, and attitudes toward each other. Said Coach Richard Pacheco, "Every girl on the team will contribute in one way or the other, and no one can ever predict if our team will go undefeated. Anything can happen during a season, so therefore you just take one game at a time, and hope for the best."

"Returning with 5 players from last year and adding several new strong players, this years girls tennis team looks much improved," commented Coach Cindy Sinclair. The returning players are looking better at this time as compared to the same time last year. A strong new addition is Jill Hamilton a freshman, who is ranked in her age division in the Southwest and ranked nationally. Despite the toughness of opponents like Saguaro and Marcos de Niza, tennis players plan on being more consistent and aggressive at the net.

Boys Tennis

The Chandler High boys tennis team can anticipate a winning season with their killer combination of returning seasoned seniors and excellent rookies. Coach Pete Beskid is looking forward to helping the team achieve their goal of representing the Wolves at the state tournament. "This team can give 100% performance and earn a 100% record for their school," commented Coach Beskid in regards to his total faith in his team's willingness to play top tennis.

J.V. Basketball

The Junior Varsity Basketball team has had another successful season, and at the time of this publication the team was working on a undefeated season. Coaching the J.V. team was Mr. Larry Cook, who said that the team's winning record was a strong team defense. Key players on the team included Tony Conant and Sean Williamson. Running the offense as a point guard has been Tony's responsibility this season. Another deciding factor in the JV success has been the strong play of Sean Williamson underneath the boards.

Varsity Basketball

The Chandler High School Varsity basketball team had its best season since the 80-81 State Runner Up Wolves. Coach Joe Partain's second year as head coach had the team in the play-offs the past two years and the quarter finals of state last year. Chandler's offense was just too much for most teams to handle which led several high scoring routs. The quickness in the backcourt was the key to the teams success, backcourt led by Darren Letourneau, who ran the team, and George Gomez whose many steals led to fastbreaks and easy baskets. Chandler was very strong underneath, with strong rebounding of Art Pendergast, and the power play of Chuck Resor. Jeff Zimmerman made a great transition to the varsity with his outside shooting and always kept the opponent off balance.

J.V. Softball

JV Softball, the training grounds for the Varsity softball team, has always been a proving ground for next years players. This year's JV team has held fast to that tradition. Coach Truman's players, under the solid tutelage of years of coaching experience, have proven that adage of practice makes perfect to be true.

V. Wrestling

Despite the fact wrestling is an individual sport, our wrestlers were truly a team. They worked out together, lifted together, practiced together, and most importantly, triumphed and lost together. Much credit goes to the coaches, who were John Carlson and Dennis Gurecki.

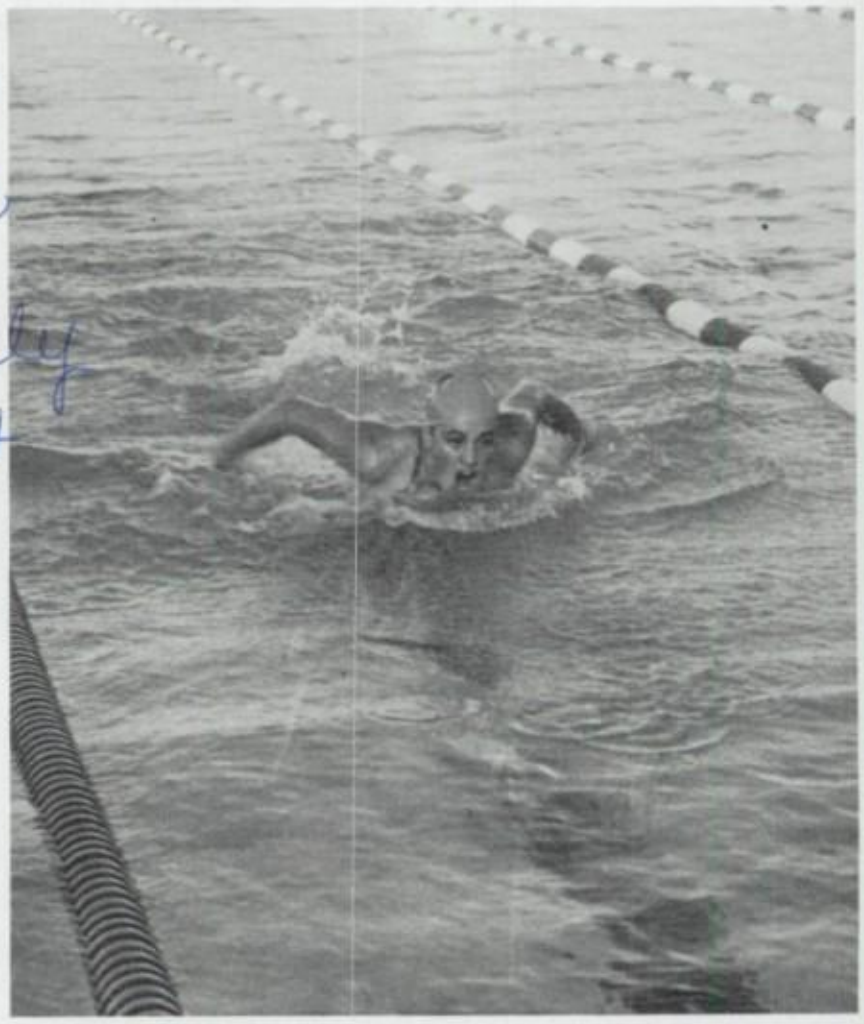
They are Jon Enwiller, Mike McCulley, Pat Sturgill, Paul Medina and Craig Uthe. The team was co-captained by Mike McCulley and Chip Jackson. "We always finished strong; a little short sometimes," said Asst. Coach Effinger, "They are a great bunch of guys. Some of them can go a long way if they stay with it."

Swimming



The girls' Swim Team did a super job this season by breaking several school records and one state record. The improved team of this year was able to turn around several close meets and win. "Our enthusiasm brought the team together to win those close meets," said coach Karen Weinaug, "We were young but that didn't hurt us much. Everyone had a fun time and I'm looking forward to next year."

Basha, Gutierrez crowned "82" King & Queen

Homecoming festivities were something many students looked forward to, for the first time the dance was held at the San Marcos Hotel, instead of the American Legion, as it has been in the past. Ike Basha and Lucy Gutierrez were crowned Homecoming King and Queen.

1972 King and Queen, Dave Woods and Chris Hunphries and 1981 King and Queen, Jim Jeffries and Heather LeMay attended the Royalty assembly and the dance at San Marcos. There was an alumni and parent dance held after the game, in the old gym.

Instead of free standing floats, mobile floats were built. The floats were based on the theme "Somewhere in Time," seniors won class float and overall competition; sophomores placed second. A parade proceeded down Arizona Avenue, after school.

Over 6,000 people attended the homecoming game. Although the Wolves fell short of victory to the Mountain View Toros (27-14), Chandler placed 2nd in league and went on to the state tournament.

Assemblies Spirit Competition Sparks Class Rivalry

Limited to only 6 pep assemblies, the students had to make the best of them. Limiting the assemblies gave pom, cheer, and modern dance more time to prepare for their performances, therefore improving the quality of the assembly and the performances.

"Good assemblies are difficult to stage," said Assistant Principal Caccamo. "Though I think that limiting the number of assemblies puts a damper on spirit, it does make it easier for the students to do a better job with pep assemblies. Quality not quantity is what is being sought."

Assemblies also gave the students a chance to honor the sports teams. There were six homeroom assemblies for the year. Special pep assemblies were also considered if any teams went to divisional or state tournaments.

As is the nature of a history-making event, its' story is recounted long after the event has been recorded. So it is fitting that we honor the 1981-82 Girls Basketball team for capturing Chandler High's first state girls basketball championship.

The Wolves under the direction of Coach Richard Pacheco battled their way to a undefeated season (27 wins, 0 losses) and captured the state title with a 44-34 win over South Mountain on May 19, 1982.

The championship team consisted of players: Brenda Arbuckle, Sherri Behnke, Janet Krich, Becky Lewis, Terrie Myers and Lisa Quinn.

All of the girls returned in the 1982-83 season with the exception of Sherri Behnke.

Thanks girls for the victorious times.
